The USIB today circulated throughout the intelligence community a report titled:

As you know, Secretary Schlesinger is extremely concerned that our intelligence in this area be closely held. General Wickham called this afternoon to ask that the report be recalled immediately. I do not know at this time how broadly it has been circulated (we received Copy No. 125). Obviously even if we recall it, ^a certain amount of damage would have already been done and xerox copies must be assumed to exist. Nevertheless, the recall might at least help to make clear the sensitivity of the information for what that is worth. Subject to your approval, I will call Director
